

2020 GSP Symposium:
Boundaries, Crossings, and Creative Spaces in the Contemporary World
Sunday, February 23, 2020

Opening Session

Building 18, 4th Floor, Collaboration Room 1

10:30 – 11:45

Opening Remarks: Dr. Kyohei Norimatsu, Director, Graduate Program on Global Society, Department of Interdisciplinary Cultural Studies

Plenary Lecture (Q & A after): Dr. Suma Ikeuchi, School of the Art Institute of Chicago

“How to Study Global Boundaries:
A View from Transnational Japanese Studies”

Lunch Reception

Building 18, 4th Floor, Common Area

11:45 – 12:30

Catered Lunch (First-Come, First-Served Basis)

Panel One: Law, Politics & Human Security

Building 18, 4th Floor, Collaboration Room 1

12:30 – 15:00

Chair: Xinran Liu, Graduate Program on Global Society

Respondent: Dr. Yasunobu Sato, Graduate Program on Human Security

Respondent: Dr. Suma Ikeuchi, School of the Art Institute of Chicago

Presenters

Paper 1: Xinran Liu, “Economicizing History: Japan's Struggle on War Reparation with China and South Korea”

Paper 2: Emma Marcos, “Justice in the Anthropocene”

Paper 3: Annamarie Sasagawa, “Shining Women and Global Jinzai: How Young Elite-Educated Japanese Women Interpret the Normative Ideals of Abenomics in Their School-to-Work Transitions”

Panel Two: Culture & Communication

Building 18, 4th Floor, Collaboration Room 1

15:15 – 17:45

Chair: Muhang Yuan, Graduate Program on Global Society

Respondent: Professor Tom Gally, Center for Global Communication Strategies, Department of Language and Information Sciences

Respondent: Professor Kyohei Norimatsu, Director, Graduate Program on Global Society, Department of Interdisciplinary Cultural Studies

Presenters

Paper 1: Muhang Yuan, “Mitigation in Face-Threatening Situations”

Paper 2: Gaeid Sengco, “Mythic Border-Crossings: Liminal Figures Along Species Lines”

Paper 3: Takuya Nakazawa, “How Russia Promotes Pro-Russian and Anti-Western Propaganda in the Balkans: The Case of Sputnik Srbija (2015–2019)”

Concluding Remarks (17:45 – 18:00)

(Dr. Roger Robins, Chair, GSP Symposium Planning Committee)

Building 18, 4th Floor, Collaboration Room 1