

Recent Master's Thesis Titles

Grad. year	Thesis title
AY2015	Kit Kat and Pocky in Japan: Narratives of Identity in the Everyday Consumption of Self and Other
	Cosmetic surgery and Chinese society
	Economic Background of Japan's Diplomacy in Cambodia
	Oneselves: Duality and Identity in the Self-Narratives of Bilingual Writers
	Bridging the academic and corporate worlds in a Japanese context
	Tasting an Imagined China: Authenticity and Otherness in Gastronomical Nihonjinron
AY2014	Successful Chat Strategies: Discourse Features of Lingua Franca English over Computer-Mediated Chat in Japan
	Myth-building in North Korea: The Development of an Ideology
	The Idea of Japan in the British National Efficiency Movement, c.1899-1909
	Does e-loyalty really exist? An empirical study of the influence of e-trust and e-satisfaction on e-loyalty in the Chinese e-tail market.
	Internationalization through health care: Challenges and opportunities for Filipino nurses employed in Japanese hospitals under the Japan-Philippines Economic Partnership Agreement